"Bass Edge" Television Show Crew Begins Filming in Prince William County, Virginia

Prince William County, Virginia – A crew from the Bass Edge television show is filming this week in the Potomac River off Leesylvania State Park.

Pro-anglers Aaron Martin and Kurt Dove arrived over the weekend with two boats and a crew of photographers and producers to film the episode, featuring bass fishing tips and techniques. They found an appealing mix of beautiful scenery, bright skies, low humidity, cool temperatures and calm water. Dove, named a 2007 Bassmaster Elite Series Pro, grew up in Woodbridge, Virginia near Leesylvania State Park. He worked with Bass Edge on another episode last year, and invited the show to his home turf this year. "We have a great opportunity to feature the Potomac, especially with the style of fishing we do on the river in the summer!" Dove explained.

The Bass Edge crew also is working with the Prince William County/Manassas, Virginia Convention and Visitors Bureau (www.visitpwc.com) to highlight the destination's other premier attractions, including Manassas National Battlefield Park, Historic Manassas and a Potomac Nationals baseball game and fireworks on the Fourth of July.

Bass Edge's instruction is backed by the latest 2-D and 3-D animation techniques, taking viewers over the terrain and under the water to highlight important instructional elements. A portion of this episode also will be featured in "The Edge," a weekly podcast available on the Bass Edge website (www.bassedg.com), focusing on tips, techniques and inside product knowledge.

Versus network is the national cable home of the National Hockey League and the Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Tour de France, the America's Cup, Professional Bull Riders, Professional Boxing, the Boston Marathon and the Davis Cup. Versus, the exclusive home of Survivor in syndication, is available in more than 70 million homes via cable systems and satellite operators.

The Prince William County/Manassas, Virginia Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) is a marketing organization promoting the destination to potential leisure visitors, tour groups and media representatives to increase tourism and economic growth. The CVB is an independent, not-for-profit organization. For more information, call 1-800-432-1792 or (703) 396-7130, or check out www.visitpwc.com!
